

To Gulfshan Fatima

Solidarity Greetings from India and the World

Deep learnings about life, about societal injustice ring through in your voice. As a young woman who for over 28 months has spent hours behind the bars of a jail, suffering indignities on identity and person, you have stood firm and tall.

Its a matter of days before we together sing the songs of freedom