Subject: Complaint against serial hate offender Nitesh Rane, MLA for delivering a provocative speech at an event organised in Akola

Respected Madam/Sir,

We at Citizens for Justice and Peace (CJP) Mumbai, a human rights movement dedicated to furthering the constitutional rights of all Indians, are deeply concerned about the communal and hate-spewing speech delivered by Nitesh Rane in Akola, Maharashtra in February 2024. As per the details available, the said speech had been delivered by politician Nitesh Rane at the event organised by Sakal Hindu Samaj on February 18 at Nimba Village, Balapur taluka, Akola. Through his speech he propagated false conspiracy theories and alleged that Muslims are reducing Hindu population in the country and are on a mission to turn India into Islamic nation, thus indulging in fear mongering. He also asked the crowd to “boycott Muslim vendors, and promote their social ostracization”, a call that is clearly anti-Constitutional.

A member of the legislative assembly (MLA) from Kankavli Assembly constituency in the Sindhudurg district of the Konkan region in Maharashtra, Nitesh Rane has been regularly giving provocative hate speeches. During his Solapur rally in January 6 this year, Rane had incited the crowd using the false narrative about “jihad” and spoke about making India into Hindu Rashtra. While delivering the hate speech against Muslims, he spoke about demolishing mosques and alluded to the example of Babri Masjid. In the past, too, he has delivered hate speech targeting Muslims and has repeatedly eulogised violence. Thus, he has a history of disturbing communal harmony of India through his provoking and misinformed statements.

We would like to bring your attention to the instigating speech video that has surfaced from the Akola, urging the police officials to take stringent action against the perpetrator to ensure that these hate-driven speeches are not left unchecked, and the peace and harmony of our country is not affected direly.

It is possible that, given recent and frequent orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, cognisance has already been taken of this speech and investigations are on. In which case, we urge that you share such details with us.

Extracts from the Speech:

“We as a Hindu society are not doing anything about this. Even if by mistake you all looked questioningly at their religion, their religion, any of their religious places, then these people would not have kept you alive. These people are standing against us with so much strength.”

“Now there is no benefit in further insulting the person whose name is Jalil. His parents have named him Jalil. What else should I do to him? But remember, brothers, the purpose for which he came here.”

“The miscreants here are doing the work of reducing the population of the Hindu community, driving away the Hindu community from here and creating an Islamic nation in the name of this party.”

“These people are praising Tipu. What did that bastard do, tell me what he did. In his entire history and in his entire career, if anyone has converted more Hindus, it is Tipu. Just think. He had one condition, if you want to live in that Tipu's kingdom then you will have to convert from Hinduism and accept Islam.”

“Tipu had made this rule in his kingdom. And the name of that Tipu has been given to our auditorium here. Well, I don't want to get into the politics of who was there, what was there. But I will tell the officer sitting on that administration, now our focus is on him.”

“You should change that name in time otherwise Nitesh Rane will blacken that board and you will not be able to do anything. That Tipu had written on his sword that O Allah, with this sword, whoever is a Hindu, whoever is an infidel, calls us infidels. He used to call a Hindu an infidel. Tipu had said that whoever will not accept Islam, give me the power to eliminate him with this sword.”

“You are sitting there praising that Tipu. Shame on that Tipu. Till date I have not come to know how you, the women of the Mughal dynasty, are tolerating the green curses of these Mughals in their self-rule on the land of Shivrai.”

“So, on this occasion, I am telling you what emphasis these people want to show, what meetings they want to hold, what speeches they want to give, what shape they want to give to those Owaisi goons here, do whatever they want. That Owaisi speaks in the auditorium (and gives slogans of), Babri Masjid Zindabad.”

“Tell him to come here and show me Babri Masjid by saying Zindabad. Not only break your legs but sent you back to Hyderabad, neither is your name Nitish Rane.”

“What are you saying while standing in the auditorium with so much police deployed? Come here and stand in front of me and speak and let me see how much courage you have left.”

“As a Hindu society, we should have such courage, brothers. This government and we all are with you. You all try it once and see if the forces are with you.”

Sirs, it is important to note that this is not the first time that Nitesh Rane has delivered such a hate speech in Maharashtra. We at CJP, have regularly tracked the speeches that had been made by him during 2023-2024. It is also essential to highlight here that in the month of January in 2024, Nitesh Rane had been booked by the Mumbai police under IPC Section 153A for delivering the anti-Muslim inflammatory speech during his Solapur rally. Previously, during his Jan Aakrosh rally in Govandi and Mankhurd on February 10 this year, he castigated BMC and MHADA officials for having facilitated “land jihad” by allowing “Rohingyas” to settle in Govandi and Mankhurd “illegally”. He threatened to demolish all mosques in the area if MHADA didn’t demolish them. He also exhorted women to “shun lipstick, take up the sword and become Durga and Kali, and not burqewali.”

Sirs, we are also generally concerned with the overall unsafe atmosphere for the Muslim community that is being generated through the systemic and perpetrated use of hate speech and writing within the state of Maharashtra and urge that urgent steps are taken to curtail and prosecute the same.

Besides, as we are sure you are aware, as the elections to the next Lok Sabha is already announced, apart from Penal Sections of Indian Criminal Law [IPC Sections 153A, 505(1) and 505(2)], the section 123 of the Representation of Peoples Act on misusing religion during electioneering will also come in to play. The atmosphere will be even more volatile and vulnerable for marginalised sections, the minorities.

Recent Directions of the Supreme Court on preventing/prosecuting hate speakers in Maharashtra

As you must know, the issue of rampant hate speech being delivered in Maharashtra and the inaction by law enforcement agencies has been highlighted before the Supreme Court multiple times since 2023. We would like to highlight that on February 3, 2023, the Supreme Court issued directions with respect to an event which was scheduled to be held in Mumbai on February 5, 2023 by the Sakal Hindu Samaj, another extremist fringe Hindutva group. The petitioner, Shaheen Abdullah, had contended that similar to its anti-Muslim speech during 'Hindu Jan Aakrosh Morcha' held in Mumbai on January 29, it can be apprehended that the same will be repeated during the February 5 meeting as well. The apex court had thus sought a video of the entire event to be scrutinised by the court at the next hearing. The court has also taken an undertaking from the government of Maharashtra that if permission for this event is granted “it will be subject to the condition that nobody will make any hate speech and in defiance of law or disturbing the public order.”

The court also outlined directives with respect to taking preventive action in such cases:

“We also direct that the Officer(s), in case, permission is granted and, in case, the occasion arises for invoking the power under Section 151 of Cr.P.C. as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Officer(s) concerned to invoke the said power and to act as per the mandate of Section 151 of the Cr.P.C.”

Even in 2024 itself, while on January 17, the Supreme Court bench of Justices Sanjiv Khanna and Dipankar Datta had expressed their anguish at the petitioners being forced to approach the Supreme Court multiple times against individuals and organisations even after there being guidelines for tacking and taking action against hate speeches. During the said hearing, the Supreme Court issued an order directing the District Magistrate and Superintendent of Police at Yavatmal, Maharashtra and Raipur, Chhattisgarh to take ‘appropriate steps’ to ensure that no incitement to violence or hate speech occurs at the rallies scheduled in the said districts in the coming few days of January. The said order was passed following the concerns raised by the petitioners over delivery of potential hate speeches at rallies planned by Hindu Janajagruti Samiti and Bharatiya Janata Party legislator T Raja Singh in the month of January.

The court had outlined directives with respect to taking preventive action in such cases:

“We would require the authorities to be conscious that no incitement to violence and hate speech are permissible. The concerned District Magistrates and Superintendent of Police of Yavatmal, Maharashtra and Raipur, Chhattisgarh will take necessary steps, as may be required. If necessary and deemed appropriate, police/ administration will install CCTV Cameras having recording facility, so as to ensure identification of the perpetrators in the event of any violence/hate speech.”

Circulars issued by DGP Maharashtra in February 2023 and May 2023 urging strict action on Hate Speech

In Circular No. DGP 20/ Petition No.940/ 2022/54.2023. issued by Dr Suhas Warke (Spl. Inspector General of Police (L&O) for The Director General of Police M.S., Mumbai), dated February 2, 2023, the Supreme Court order dated January 13, 2023 has been highlighted where the court had asked the police to ensure that as and when any speech which attracts offences such as Sections 153A, 153B and 295A and 505 of the IPC take place, suo moto action is taken if no complaint is forthcoming.

The circular had directed all Unit Commanders to follow the Supreme Court order.

The Circular No. DGP/20/Petition No. 940-2022/54/2023 issued by Dr Suhas Warke (Spl. Inspector General of Police (L&O) for The Director General of Police M.S., Mumbai), dated April 3, 2023, entails “measures to be taken to maintain law and order due to agitations, morchas, speeches etc.”

It gives detailed instructions on what steps are to be taken when any morchas are to be held:

2. All the Unit Commanders should hold a meeting with the concerned organizers before such a morcha and fix the route of the morcha with appropriate terms and condition. A combined meeting of all social groups should be taken to convey clearly to all that they should maintain peace and keep law and order during the morcha. Preventive action against Anti-social elements should be taken. Those elements who help in maintaining peace and harmony should be encouraged. Audio Video recording of the morcha should be done. Police Head Quarters should ensure adequate supply of equipment’s, like Lathi, Helmets, etc. to police men deployed for morcha bandobast. If any law and order situation arises, offences should be registered immediately and arrest should be made. Intelligence machinery should be activated to collect advance information about morcha, agitation and efforts should be made to pre-empt any communal incidents.

Action taken against hate speakers and offenders

Ma'am/Sir, on April 28, 2023 the Supreme Court had held that all States/UTs, including Maharashtra, are enjoined and bound to take suo moto action to register FIR against hate speeches, without waiting for any formal complaint. In its order, the Supreme Court bench comprising Justices KM Joseph and BV Nagarathna had said the following:

"Respondents (states) shall ensure that immediately, as and when any speech or any action takes place which attracts offences such as Section 153A, 153B, 295A and 506 of IPC etc, without any complaint being filed suo moto action be taken to register cases and proceed against the offenders in accordance with law. Respondents will issue directions to the subordinates so that appropriate action can be taken at the earliest. We further make it clear that such action be taken irrespective of the religion of the maker of the speech, so that the secular character of Bharat as envisaged by the Preamble is preserved."

The apex court has, thus, again outlined already codified statutory duties of a police officer which makes it mandatory for them to take action under section 151 of CrPC in case there is apprehension of hate speech. Sir, given the well-orchestrated and numerous instances of hate speech and actual hate crimes being committed, the minority community in various parts of India already feels insecure and threatened. Furthermore, this was spoken at a public event and this speech has reached not only the audience at the event but also all those who may have seen these videos on their mobile phones, by the medium of social media. How large and wide the reach of social media can be, we are sure you must be aware. The consequences of such an inflammatory speech could have been worse.

Besides the Supreme Court we are sure that you are aware that the Bombay High Court is also currently hearing a petition on the hate speeches by another serial offender, Vikram Pawaskar. In the matter, the court has raised questions on the inaction of the police over the FIRs filed against Pawaskar for delivering violent anti-Muslim hate speeches.

Sections of Indian Penal Law attracted

The inflammatory and divisive speech delivered by Nitesh Rane amounts to inciteful, hate speech which is a punishable offence under various sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC):

Section 153A [promotion of enmity between different groups on grounds of religion, race, place of birth, residence, language, etc., and doing acts prejudicial to maintenance of harmony],

Sections 505 (1) and (2) [publication or circulation of any statement, rumour or report causing public mischief and enmity, hatred or ill-will between classes].

In view of the same, we urge you to you to take cognizance of the video enclosed herewith, register a case against the perpetrators identified as well as the organizer, and arrest them for the cognizable offences under the relevant sections. We also wish for you to inform whether the said event had been videotaped by the police officials as per the orders of the Supreme Court. Additionally, we wish for the police to keep us abreast of developments and the action taken in this case, based on the relevant section, as this would go a long way in re-building faith and confidence in the rule of law in general and a police-citizen relationship in particular.

Ma'am/Sir, do note that we are sending this complaint, by email and registered post, on which we urge you to register an FIR if one has not been filed yet.

In anticipation,

Yours sincerely,

Nandan Maluste, CJP President,

Teesta Setalvad, CJP Secretary
