CORAM : A. S. GADKARI AND KAMAL KHATA, JJ.

DATE : 6th MAY, 2026

P. C.-

1) In view of the deliberation in the Court, we direct the State of Maharashtra, so also the BMC to issue identity cards (smart cards or chip cards) having QR Codes for identification of 99435 hawkers which have already been surveyed as noted at least in two decisions of this Court including the Judgment dated 23rd March, 2026 passed in (The Maharashtra Ekta Hawkers Union Vs. Town Vending Committee- MCGM & Ors., WPL NO.29339 OF 2024) within a period of five weeks from today.

1.1) We also direct the BMC to set up an e-portal and provide WhatsApp Number (which can be monitored by a high ranking responsible officer), which is available to the citizens for lodging their complaints regarding nuisance of illegal hawking activities in any area(s) or zone(s). This be done at the earliest and in any event simultaneously while issuing the identity cards to the surveyed hawkers.

2) It is clarified that, these identity cards are being issued to the 99435 hawkers as they are protected by the Orders of this Court, as also by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. Their eligibility will be independently considered after formation of TVC and as per the provisions of law. Any person(s) found ineligible after formation of TVC as per the provisions of law, shall not claim eligibility on the basis of the said identity card.

3) Mr. Desai, learned counsel appearing on behalf of his clients submitted that, the each members of their Union will approach the Licensing Department of the concerned ward on the BMC's given date and will cooperate with the BMC's Officers for issuance of the said identity cards. The said statement is accepted.

4) Advocate Ms. Namrata Vinod submitted that, the Officers of the BMC and Police Department may be directed to adhere to the earlier directions issued vide various Orders passed by this Court in its true letter and spirit. The said request is noted by the learned counsel of BMC and the State.

5) Stand over to 10th June, 2026.
